

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Silver promptly jumped from 87 1/2 to 84 1/2 when its friends showed their strength in congress.

When a boy begins to wash his neck without being told, it is a sign he is passing into the ordeal of his first love affair.—News.

The Silver Party has carried out its pledges of economy. The general appropriation bill is $92,000 less than the one passed by a Republican legislature two years ago.

"We would suggest to Wamamaker that a change be made in the flavoring of the mullage used on the Columbian stamps. Give us something more appetizing."—Ex.

The people of the State want the State Board of Equalization law repealed. The silver party is pledged to repeal it.

It should be done at once.

It is now rumored that Cleveland intends to try for the Republican nomination in 1896 and that the appointment of Judge Gresham to his cabinet is the first move in that direction.

When Congressman Springer voted with Wall street for cloture rule to "yag" the friends of silver after he had refused to do the same last to prevent goldbug filibustering, he ceased to represent the sentiment of his Illinois constituency. Mr Springer will find a large silver rock to climb over when he goes home for re-election.

Bland talked just like Stewart and Weaver when he boldly charged his own party in Congress with having "betrayed every promise made to the American people on the tariff and silver issues and up to now the people had been deceived in the last election." No wonder Congress applauded the silver champion from Missouri.

About the worst case of typographical error occurred in the Sunday Examiner. This was the heading of an article:

HE DOES THE HATCHING.

The Peculiar Relations Between Mr. and Mrs. Oelrichs.

The reading matter thus so strangely headed had reference to an ostrich farm in Arizona.—Bee.

A Comstock Sensation.

Virginia City is now excited over a social sensation.

A few evenings since a young lady who teaches a dancing school took exception to the appearance of two young ladies on the floor and had them ejected from the hall on the ground that their moral characters were not up to the standard prevailing on the Comstock.

On Tuesday evening the young ladies "laid her" to use a common expression in vogue on the ledge and proceeded to blacken eyes and otherwise have fun with her. She gave them a lively fight, "chassezed to the left" and pulling a six shooter opened fire and put them to flight. The local 490 is much excited.

Chicken Dipping.

E. S. Sherlock of Lakeview, Or., has been experimenting with sheep-dip. Being informed by the stock inspector that dipping chickens would increase their laying qualities, he dipped eighty of his fine hens. The result was that sixty of the eighty were dead next morning. Some Indians took the dead chickens and ate them, and in a few days one of them came back and asked Mr. Sherlock when he was going to dip chickens again.

Nipped in the Bud.

Yesterday a prisoner tipped Warden Bell a wink and showed him where a machine was stored capable of boring a 22-inch hole in a brick wall. Some convicts from Dayton had planned a break, and it was nipped in the bud. The machine is a very clever contrivance, and capable of getting a hole through a wall quicker than anything yet turned out by the convicts.

Special Notice.

Archer Baker is the only merchant in Carson that is handling the celebrated brand of "Our Taste Hams." Other parties representing to sell them at sixteen cents per pound, are substituting another brand.
